MOTION APPROVED

OLD BUSINESS

Fund Raising - Hodulik

- BLPA mailed out letters to members requesting donations for Phase II of the trail. Thirteen responses have been received thus far.
- Straits Area Community Foundation grant application deadline is December 15, 2017. Hodulik will ask Ann Baughman to help with grant writing.
- Douglas Lake Association – Dale Covy will check into how to request a donation.
- No further mailings will be sent at this time.

Mullett-Burt Road – Hodulik

- Five-foot paved shoulders on both sides of the road for the trail.
- Mac Richardson said the speed limit needs to be lowered on E. Burt Lake Road and Mullett-Burt Road. Hodulik will bring it up at next township board meeting.

MDOT/TAP Project Agreement and Resolution – Hodulik

The documents need to be signed at the November 2nd board meeting.

Trail Financial Management – Hodulik

Hodulik and Reh met with Bill Kanine who agreed to help with the submission process for reimbursement from the Trust Fund and MDOT.

Trail Maintenance – Hodulik

The hill on Brutus Road is washing out. Gary Street would like it paved and has received a bid from Spierling Excavating – cost is approximately $15,000 to pave the entire hill to Maple Bay Road.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Cheboygan County Trails Committee meets on Wednesday mornings – Katie Parker will attend a meeting.

The Planning Commission is working on the Recreation Plan.

Financials - Reh

Total received in donations: $17,700

Top of Michigan Trails Council account: $35,360

Citizens National Bank account: $40,000

Next meeting is December 4, 2017.
